

BRIGHT WEEKEND 25/1/09->29/1/09

Bright & nearby Freeburgh are located in a picturesque valley amongst the Victorian alps. It provides an idela base for exploring various walks in the surrounding area, particularly Mt. Buffalo.

This trip over the Australia Day weekend is a base camp staying at the Freeburgh caravan park. We have a grassy area to ourselves away from most of the crowd. Cost is $48 for 4 nights + trips fess. Note that Australia Day is a Thursday.

There will be a full day walk for the Thrusday to Saturday, with a possible short walk on the Sunday. The full day walks are expected to comprise:

1. Rollason's Falls CP <-> Chalet (approx. 16km rtn). This is the second section of the 'Big Walk' , from near the falls to the Buffalo Chalet (closed). A short detour at the end of the walk leads to the falls where one can swim.
- 2.The Back Wall Trek + Dickson's Falls lookout (16km, 5h). This is a walk in a more remote section of the park to the Back Wall lookout area, with an optional side trip to Dickson's Falls lookout via the Dickson's Falls nature trail.
3. Complete Lake Catani - Mt. Dunn - The Reservoir - Lake view (10km cct., 5h, M). This includes the picturesque Lake Catani & lookouts at Mt. Dunn (360 Deg.) and the Lake View lookout. Also Og, Gog & Magog (rock formations).
